Chester has been welcoming visitors since the Romans came here 2,000 years ago and it's easy to see why it's so popular today!

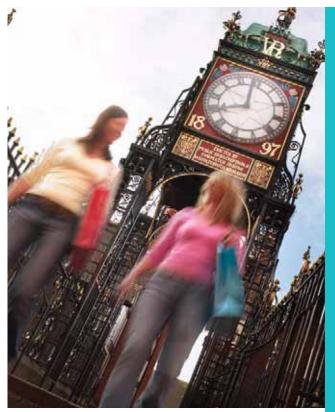

Here you can enjoy great treasures from the past including the unique world-famous Row galleries and the most complete City Walls in Britain!

Chester has many other claims to fame including the Eastgate Clock – probably the most photographed in the world after Big Ben – and the largest stone-built Roman Amphitheatre in the country.

Chester is one of the most compact and walkable cities in Britain. Join one of the many guided walking tours that leave the Chester Visitor Centre (CVC) or Town Hall Tourist Information Centre (TIC) daily or follow the waymarked Millennium Festival Trail that links the City's best-loved historic buildings. Trail guides are on sale at the CVC or TIC.

In summertime head for the city centre Cross where the Town Crier welcomes visitors from across the world at 12 noon, Tuesday to Saturday, May to August. It's a tradition dating back over 500 years.

Chester entertains with a fiesta of festivals all year including Summer Music, Literature, Folk, Food and Drink and Fashion as well as a host of street processions including the Midsummer & Midwinter Watch (spectacular recreations of a medieval entertainment), the Lord Mayor's Show and Christmas Lantern Parades. Pick up your free 'Welcome to Chester' guide available at the CVC or TIC for details.

The City also hosts Chester Races (the oldest in Britain) and Chester Regatta – the oldest rowing competition in the world. And if that seems too much like hard work, relax on a river trip or enjoy a leisurely canal cruise.

The City is the most complete shopping centre in Britain thanks to the Rows, two-tier medieval galleries of shops. Here you'll find well-known high street names and a host of specialist shops. The City is also a Mecca for antique lovers and collectors. The Three Old Arches is said to be the oldest shop front in England. The Mall Grosvenor and Forum Shopping Centre with indoor market provide great undercover shopping all year.

Shopping will give you a great appetite for the City's magical menu of mouthwatering restaurants and a host of cosy teashops, chic café bars and traditional half-timbered inns. Here you can savour delicious dishes from across the world including Tex-Mex, South American, Thai and Caribbean as well as French, Italian, Spanish and Swedish. Simply scrumptious! You can pick up a free Chester Food and Drink guide from Chester Visitor Centre.

Chester is also the ideal base to stay and explore the castles, coast and countryside of North Wales; the canals, country houses and gardens of Cheshire including Chester Zoo, the largest garden zoo in Britain, and Lyme Park (the location for BBCTV's Pride and Prejudice); and the Wirral Peninsula, home to the magnificent Lady Lever Art Gallery, a treasure-house of great paintings, furniture and ceramics.

Just outside Chester is McArthur Glen Designer Outlet, Cheshire Oaks the largest in Europe. Nearby is the Blue Planet, Britain's biggest aquarium, and a gigantic lwerks 3-D Cinema – the first in Britain.

Chester is not just a magnificent heritage city, it's also the gateway to some of the finest countryside in England dotted with picturesque villages like Malpas, Tattenhall and Farndon. There's so much to see and do in Chester and the surrounding area that you may want to stay longer and explore more. Chester offers a great choice of accommodation ranging from de-luxe hotels and warm and friendly B&Bs to superb self-catering and budget hostels.

You can book accommodation at Chester Visitor Centre or Town Hall Tourist Information Centre or click on our website at www.visitchester.com where the latest vacancy information is displayed. You can book on-line or use our Easybook© room reservation service by telephoning: 01244 402506.

Enjoy your visit and come back again soon!

Experience the sights, sounds and smells of Roman Chester

Deva is the Roman fortress built almost 2,000 years ago which now lies buried beneath the hustle and bustle of modern day Chester. Now you too can visit the Roman fortress of Deva - pronounced 'Dewa' in Roman times. Here you stroll along a reconstructed street, experiencing some of the sights, sounds and smells of life inside the Roman fortress.

Next, you return to the present day on an extensive archaeological 'dig'. This is a unique opportunity to discover the substantial Roman, Saxon and Medieval remains beneath Chester. A superb collection of artefacts from Chester and elsewhere in the Roman Empire are on display in the on-site museum.

Touch the past yourself in our 'hands-on' studio. This area has activities for everyone, which range from trying on a replica suit of Roman armour, to handling Roman pottery and animal bones.

OPENING TIMES 9am-5pm Mon-Sat, 10am-5pm Sunday. Winter times may vary

Shopping for crafts & collectables – restaurants, bars and entertainment

Rufus Court won a Civic Award for its setting in the heart of the city. It was designed to provide a unique environment to retail unique objects. But it's hidden treasure, you'll need to explore a little bit to find it.

It's worth it! The old buildings on the City Walls dating back to 1730 are cleverly integrated with a new courtyard and the row level is in keeping with Chester's historic building style. Here you'll find individual, independent shops including jewellery, sports, hairdressing & beauty, galleries & bookshops. A delicatessen, five eateries (restaurants, bars & tea shop) complete the agenda. Internet access available.

Find us on the Civic Trust Millennium Trail.
